

Hello!

My name is Aleksei. I am moving to the Netherlands with my family to work in the head office of my company.

We are a family of five, consisting of myself, my wife Elena, and our three wonderful sons: Artem, Daniil, and Iaroslav. Our family unit has been strong for over 17 years, rooted in our commitment to one another and our shared love for learning and adventure. We are a close-knit, responsible, and caring family.

Let me provide you with some facts about us:

About Me (Aleksei):

- I am 36 years old and a seasoned IT professional with 16 years of experience.
- I hold a leadership role in the Enterprise and Tier1 clients development stream in our company, which specializes in neural network development and is well-established in the market.
- I enjoy staying active through running and have completed over 30 half-marathons.
- Family are of utmost importance to me, and I cherish every moment spent with my children.

About My Wife Elena:

- Elena is also 36 years old and a master of psychology with a private practice certification.
- She is a certified Montessori teacher and has experience leading a private Montessori school and being a practicing teacher, focusing on teenagers.
- Her interests include travel, active sports, gardening, and creating mosaic art.

About Artem (14 years old):

- Artem is a smart and ambitious young man who already possesses coding skills.
- He aspires to become a pilot, demonstrating a strong sense of responsibility and determination.
- Artem is known for his friendly and caring nature.

About Daniil (12 years old):

- Daniil, one of our 12-year-old twins, is highly communicative and a natural leader at school.
- He is a competitive sailor and even participated in the country championship this year.

About Iaroslav (12 years old):

- Iaroslav, our other 12-year-old son, is brimming with energy and also holds a leadership role at his school.
- He has a deep passion for cinema, with experience in both teaching at a film school and professional voice acting.

As a family, we have no pets and maintain a high level of respect for both the properties we occupy and our neighbors. We understand the importance of keeping a clean and well-maintained living environment. We look forward to the possibility of creating a wonderful living environment for our family. We believe that we would be the perfect tenants, contributing positively to community.

In addition to our dedication to being responsible tenants, we are financially stable, with a stable source of income. We are confident that we can maintain the apartment in excellent condition and pay our rent consistently and on time.
